MALFEASANCE ALLEGED

In Offices of County Treasurer and Assessor To be investigated.

Fire in the General Hospital-District Court Hearings - Coroner's Verdict In West Weber Fatality.

The following communication has been received by the district attorney, which is self explanatory: "Ogden, Utah, Nov. 8, 1902. Hon. A. B. Hayes, District Attorney, Ogden, Utah. Sir-On Oct. 29, 1902, Mr. T. D. Johnson caused to be published over his signature in the Standard, a daily paper published at Ogden, Utah, the follow-g communication: Editor of Standard: Taking advantage of your very kind offer to publish a statement of the facts relating to certain expenditures in certain of the county offices concerning which there has arisen some controversy, I respec-fully submit the following:

TREASURER'S OFFICE. 1902 April, Claim No. 14941, $10 of J. M.

1902 May, Claim No. 15253, $32, of J. M. Hanson, 1902 September, Claim No. 16740, $22.50,
 of J. M. Hanson.

J. M. Hanson did not perform the services represented by the above claims except for the amount of three or four George M. Hanson, a deputy in the treasurer's office, performed the ser-vices represented by said claims and drew the pay therefor, except that allowed for the three or four days above mentioned.

The reason given by Mr. Chambers for the use of the name of J. M. Hanson as above shown, is, that the state auditor, acting under the opinion of the attorney general of the state (both Republicans) refuses to pay any deputy employed in his office in excess of two-thirds of the salary allowed the treasurer, for any services rendered in such office, the ruling being that the compensation above mentioned is in full for any and all services which may be rendered for such services, and under this ruling, no part of any such excess payment would be returned to Weber county by the state, and that the above services were in excess of the salary of Mr. George M. Hanson, and the above method was used to secure from the state a return to Weber county of onehalf of the amount paid to George Han-son under the name of his brother.

ASSESSOR'S OFFICE.

1902 April, Claim No. 14921, $52, F. A. April, Claim No. 14503, $2, F. A. 1902 May, Claim No. 15240, $52, F. A.

Mr. Miller rendered no services represented by the above claims nor re-ceived any of the money thereon. deputies in the assessor's office, and they received the money thereon.

Mr. Miller's name was used for the following reason, as stated by Mr. Gib-

Under the opinion of the attorneygeneral above referred to, deputies in the assessor's office could only be paid above $2 per day.

The board of county commissioners authorized the payment of $2.50 per day. The county assessor, Mr. Gibson, was instructed by the board of county commissioners and by Mr. Hollingsworth, the county auditor, in order to avoid the above ruling of the attorney general, to make up his payroll of his deputies at the rate of $2 per day, and to put the extra $.50 in the name of some other deputs. other deputy, who had not made full time at the same rate for a sufficient length of time to make up the difference, and he did so by using the name of F. A. Miller.

The claims above mentioned are contrined in the report of the treasurer and auditor of this county presented to the state auditor and on file in his offee, which statement was accompanied with a demand on behalf of Weber county for a re-payment to it of one-half thereof.

These reports are sworn to by Mr Chambers as county treasurer; they were presented to the state auditor after having been audited by County Auditor Hollingsworth, and passed upon and allowed by the board of county The statute governing the above mat-er reads as follows:

A USE FOR EVERYTHING.

Nothing Yet Ever Created Without a Purpose.

A Theory Difficult to be Believed in Some Instances.

Many Think Nature Might Have Been Improved Upon in Many Ways.

We all wonder why certain things were ever made, why certain animals or insects were allowed to live. And yet there is no doubt but that everything was intended for some purpose, and as civilization advances, such purposes are discovered.

Cod liver oil is something that everybody knows to have been a wise provision of Providence, to be used as a medicine in all wasting diseases. Why nature should have appended to this valuable remedy its horrible odor and most terrible taste is also something that many have wondered at. But that was nature's way. She gave to man the crude material, and has left it to his intelligence to overcome many of its bjectionable features. This is exactly what has happened in regard to cod liver oil. Everybody knows its value. Everybody knows how necessary it is for physicians to prederibe it in many instances. Everybody terrible medicines to take that can be imagined. There is no longer need of taking it; that is, in the form in which we have been accustomed to know it.

Mr. Druehl of the Smith Drug Co f this city, has associated himself with e Boston house which is producing a preparation known as Vinol-Wine of od Liver Oil. This is not a patent nedicine. Any one may see, on the abel of each bottle, or Mr. Druehl will tell any one who calls on him, exactly what Vinol contains. As he explained yesterday: "We have simply found out how to extract the active medicinal principles from the cod's liver that has made cod liver oil valuable. This we od extract. The grease, with all its vile odor, is left behind. That, too, has its purpose. It is valuable for dressing leather, but as for its being in any way good for man as a medi-cine, it is absolutely worthless. "Now we take the medicine that we have obtained, or the concentrated medicinal properties of the cod's liver, and place just the right quantity of this extract in a delicious, mild table wine, and there you have the whole story. Anybody can learn in a minute Anybody can learn in a minute that Vinol is tasteless. Any one who is compelled to take cod liver oil can find out in a few days how much more benefit can be derived from Vinol than ould ever have been obtained from cod ver oil in its crude form." Mr. Druehl's enthusiasm in regard to Vinol is indeed well founded. The pre-paration which he is handling will be n a short time one of the best known seed two-thirds of the amount fixed for the salary of the principal."

The foregoing statements were secured from Mr. Chambers and Mr. mitted to them and both have said that hey were correct and true in so far as they relate to either of them respec-

They both justify themselves on the ground of necessity, which, it is said, knows no law.

A telephone alarm was sent into the fire station at 2:37 p. m., the depart-ment made a quick run to the scene of the fire, by the time the firemen had arrived the inmates of the institution were almost beyond control. There were two inmates on the second floor in pri vate compartments. One of them, sur fering from delirium tremmens, would not wait for the firemen to throw up their ladder, but jumped from the second floor to the ground, receiving only slight bruises, the other man stood at his window ready to jump, when the ladder was placed at the window and he was carried to the ground by one of the firemen. Chief Graves went to the upper floor, but was unable to return be the staircase, the smoke was so dense and would have no doubt been over come by the smoke had not the fire men quickly thrown a rope to him which he tied around a bed and slid down to the ground, striking his left knee against a rock, bruising it badly. No water was used in extinguishing the flames, but the firemen fought bravely with the chemicals until the flames were extinguished. The fire was caused by a defective furnace. The heat was so great that the flue connections vere melted and the hot metal down on the firemen. Through the ex-cellent work of the firemen the flames

DISTRICT COURT. The case of the state of Utah James Russell, charged with robbery, occupied the attention of Judge Rolapp and a jury all day yesterday. The first witness examined was Charles Brown, an Oregon Short Line brakeman, who testified that he was on the passenger train north bound on the evening of July 31, when Officer Kernan was held up and his pistol, handcuffs, and slingshot were taken from him, near the watertank; that he saw the defendant Russell, hold up the officer, and posttively identified him.

Officer Kernan was recalled and tes-tified to about the same facts as when on the witness stand Monday.

The defandant was placed on the stand. He testified that his true name is W. A. Rhodes, and his home Belle-ville, Ill., that he came to Ogden only a few days before the alleged robbery and was in no way connected with the affair. A number of the letters written to the defendant from the Prudential Insurance company were introduced in evidence to show the good character of defendant in the past. Lengthy arguments were made by Dist. Atty. Hayes for the prosecution and Atty. Charley Stout for the defense, The case was submitted to the jury at 3:30 p. m., who after an absence of seven hours, brought in a verdict of not
